TGV is recognized by Fundación ExportAr for its consolidation and stability

Buenos Aires, December 2011. - TGV, Excelencia en Soluciones Informáticas was awarded the Export Foundation Award in the category "Consolidation and Stability in Foreign Markets."

Ernesto Galindez, President of TGV, received this award from Minister of Foreign Affairs Héctor Timerman during an award ceremony held December 21 at San Martin Palace, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' ceremonial annex.

"We have a longstanding tradition of exporting and every year we continue to increase our offshore operations. Our sustained and dedicated effort has allowed us to consolidate our operations in markets with high professional standards such as Mexico, the Netherlands and Switzerland," said Ernesto Galindez, adding "This recognition fills us with pride because it reflects the work of all our staff."

The honor awarded annually by ExportAr Foundation is a public recognition of the efforts and achievements of companies and organizations that provide products and services to the global market.

Along with Minister Timerman, other officials attending the ceremony included Secretary of International Economic Relations Cecilia Nahon, President of the Foundation ExportAr Miguel Acevedo, and Juan Usandivaras, ExportAr's executive director.
